

Programme Learning Outcomes
MASTER OF EDUCATION (M.Ed.)

The program outcomes and program specific outcomes have been clearly stated in accordance with the syllabi by prescribed by GNDU Amritsar. M.Ed. programme intent at preparing professionally trained teacher educators. The programme will also enable teacher educators to develop insight on socio, psychological and philosophical perspectives, pedagogical knowledge and skills for effective teaching learning process; moreover it also aims at developing appropriate attitude and values towards teaching profession

Programme Learning Outcomes (Master of Education): On successful completion of the two-year M.Ed. programme, teacher educators will be able to:

- Develop spirit of inquiry.
- Plan strategies to deal with classroom diversity.
- Develop professional spirit and facilitate them with required pedagogical skills.
- Solve various problems of school management and classroom management.
- Equip themselves with intra personal and interpersonal skills.
- Promote self directed learning through the use of non conventional methods of teaching i.e cooperative and collaborative learning, brain storming, individual learning, online platforms etc.
- Generate a sense of belongingness and commitment towards the environment.
- Integrate technology in the task of teaching and learning.
- Comprehend various philosophies and their role in education.
- Expose the aims, learning strategies, discipline and experiences of education.
- Develop reflective outlook towards the emerging challenges in the field of education.
- Enhance communication, entrepreneurship and employability skills.

- Equip themselves with administrative and managerial skills.
- Develop analytical and interpretative as well as assessment and evaluative skills.